Part III. Dialogues

11. M: I'm going to France on Sunday.
W: How long does it take to fly there, Sam?
M: Oh, I'm not sure. I'm going to drive.
12. W: Hello, Jerry. Long time no see.
M: Hi, Jane. I'm so busy with my new job.
W: Really? When did you start that?
M: This Monday. I left my old job on Tuesday last week.
13. M: What would you like to have for breakfast, Lisa?
W: Two eggs and a glass of milk. What about you, Jack?
M: I'd like three eggs and two glasses of milk.
14. W: You look nice today!
M: Thanks. I bought this new T-shirt yesterday.
W: How much was it?
M: Eighteen pounds.

W: Was it expensive? I want to learn to drive, too.

M: It's cost me a hundred and forty pounds already. I've had ten lessons and each one was fourteen pounds.

W: Is that for an hour?

M: Mm... less than that—three quarters of an hour.

W: I see. And is the teacher's car new?

M: Yes, and it's not a big car so parking is easy, and it doesn't go very fast!

W: When are you going to take your driving test?

M: I didn't pass it last week. The traffic lights were red but I didn't see them and I couldn't brake in time.

W: Never mind. You can take the test again. Tell me about your teacher. Is he friendly?

M: He's OK. He's quite young and interesting to talk to, but my father will give me my next lessons. He's cheaper!

W: Well, good luck!

Part IV. Passages

A) You will hear a passage. Choose the best answer to each question or complete each sentence according to the passage. The passage will be read twice.

Hi, I'm Sally. Jason is my husband. I have two sons and a daughter. Eric is my eldest child. He is eleven years old. My daughter Nancy is ten years old. Tony, my youngest child, is five years old and he likes playing with his toys. He often asks his brother and sister to play with him, but they are always busy.

One day as I came home from work, I was very surprised to see all of my naughty children sitting quietly in front of the TV. They were watching the weather report! The weather girl was talking about the weather for the next day. She said, "There'll be a lot of rain tomorrow." Eric and Nancy looked sad. "What's wrong, children?" I asked. "I can't have a picnic tomorrow," said Eric. "And I can't go to the beach with my friends," said Nancy. But Tony was very happy. "Great! " he said. "Everyone will stay at home and play with me. We can have great fun! "

You are listening to Radio South. Here is some information about a pop concert. The group Red River is coming to London. They will be in London from the twenty-eighth of October to the second of November. After that they will be in Oxford from the fourth of November until the ninth. Tickets are quite expensive—thirty-seven pounds each. Tickets will sell quickly for this famous band so book early.
