It was not a robber, but Mr Green's wife.

B) One possible version:

I don't think it is good for us to use e-dictionaries at school, though they are easy to carry and use. There are some reasons for this. First, if we use e-dictionaries, we may become lazy and won't want to read books or paper dictionaries. Second, we can't listen to the teacher carefully in class if we play games or listen to music on the e-dictionaries. Third, sometimes, the noise from the e-dictionaries may make our teachers and classmates unhappy. So I don't think students should use e-dictionaries at school.

10. What do you want to be when you grow up?

Part III. Dialogues

A) You will hear five mini-dialogues and questions. Choose the best picture for each question. Each dialogue and question will be read twice.

11. W: Is it 3rd March today?
M: No, it is 1st March.
W: Yeah, tomorrow is 2nd March.
Q: What's the date the day after tomorrow?
12. M: What's your favourite subject, Lily?
W: History. What about you, Tom?
M: Well, I like maths and English, but my most favourite subject is Chinese.
Q: What subject does Tom like best?
13. W: Would you like to play basketball or football this afternoon?
M: Neither. I want to play table tennis or volleyball.
W: Well, let's go to play table tennis.
Q: What are they going to play?
14. W: What's the weather like in your city?
M: It's cloudy every day, but there is no rain.
W: Really? It's lovely and sunny in my city.
Q: What's the weather like in the man's city?
15. M: Did you go to the zoo yesterday morning, Tina?
W: Yes, and then I went to see the film Transformers in the afternoon.
M: That's a wonderful film!
Q: Where did Tina go yesterday afternoon?

B) You will hear a long dialogue. Choose the best answer to each question. The dialogue will be read twice.

M: Hello, Jenny. What are you doing here?

W: Hello, Mark! This is my daughter, Sarah. It's the school holidays so we're shopping now—we're not sure what to do after that.

M: Well, there's a show for children this afternoon in the library where I work.

W: Oh? What time is the show?

M: It starts at two and finishes at three thirty. It's only a quarter past one now.

W: How much is a ticket?

M: Well, it's ten dollars for adults and five dollars for children.

W: And is there a reading activity in the holidays?

M: Yes, and if children under ten, like Sarah, read four books in six weeks, we give them something to take home.

W: Like what? A book?

M: Well, this year it's a pen but last year it was a book or a schoolbag. Meet me after the show and I'll tell you what to do.

W: Thanks. See you later then.

Part IV. Passages

A) You will hear a passage. Choose the best answer to each question or complete each sentence according to the passage. The passage will be read twice.

Hi, I'm Charlie. Today my teacher said to us, "We're going to the country park next week!" We are all excited. My teacher told us to get into groups of three. "First of all, I want you to find out three things about the country park," she said. She wrote three questions on the board:

1. What can we do in the country park?
2. What can we see in the country park?
3. How long does it take to get from school to the country park?

I was in a group with Tom and Mary. I thought the third question was the easiest so I said, "I'll find out how long it takes to get to the country park." Tom took the first question and Mary took the second.

Tom worked hard. He found a book about the country park. It showed people could walk, swim and fish there. Mary asked her mother to take her to the country park. They had a picnic there. They took a lot of photos. I did not want to spend much time on my question, so I rang the visitor centre and asked, "How long does it take to get from Xinhua School to the country park?" "Just a minute," the man said. You see, it only took me a few minutes to finish my homework.

B) You will hear a passage. Complete the following sentences according to the passage. Use only one word for each blank. The passage will be read twice.

Right, listen carefully, everyone. I want to tell you about our school trip. We're going on Saturday. I hope you can all come. As you know, we're going to visit the film museum. There are lots of very interesting things there about the cinema and how films are made. We'll have to leave at a quarter to nine so don't be late. We'll get there by bus. Please meet me in the car park. You all know where it is, don't you? And when we return, the bus will leave you at the school entrance. Tell your parents, won't you?

What next? Oh, yes, the cost of the trip. It'll be six pounds each, OK? Remember to get the money from your parents.

Now, I'm going to give you some work to do at the museum. You'll need to write things down, so take a pencil and some paper with you. We'll have lunch in the museum café so you needn't bring any food with you. Well, I think that's everything.
