A) One possible version:

... I'd start in Oxford. It's a beautiful city, and it's near the airport. You could visit several famous universities there. The next day, you could go to Stratford and visit Shakespeare's birthplace and, if you have time afterwards, you could also visit Warwick Castle.

I know you like the countryside, so why don't you go to the Peak District after that? It's wonderful for walking and there aren't too many tourists. After that, Manchester is not far. It's got great night life.

B) One possible version:

My cousin Tom is one of my heroes. I admire him because about six years ago he made a difficult decision and carried on without complaining. Unfortunately, Tom's parents divorced when he was ten. He has a younger sister, Lily, who was six then. Tom and Lily lived with their mother. Then their mother became very ill. Advised that he and Lily should go to live with their father, Tom refused. From the age of 12, he took charge of his home. Helping his mother and looking after Lily, he had little time for himself. However, he always seemed cheerful and made us all laugh at family parties, even though he was missing so much of the fun that most teenagers have.

Last year, a new treatment meant that his mother's health began to improve. Now, Tom's life is easier, but he will always be a person I admire.

6. W: Tommy, you look terrible.

M: I had a restless night. I was thinking about today's maths and science exams.

W: Don't worry about the results. Just do your best.

Question: Why didn't the man get any sleep last night?

7. W: Take a look at this cell phone. I've been wanting one like this for ages.

M: Wow, Jenny, it's fantastic!

W: Yes, it's really something. But just look at the price label. I don't think I can afford it.

Question: Where does the conversation probably take place?

8. M: Did you hear how many people were killed in the plane crash?

W: No, I didn't. But can we change the subject? It makes me really upset.

Question: What does the woman think of the subject?

9. W: You're late again.

M: I'm sorry, but there's a good reason.

W: Is there?

M: Yes. The freeway was closed because of the heavy snow.

Question: Why was the man late?

10. W: Hi, Mr Green. You look great.

M: Thanks.

W: What do you do to stay so healthy?

M: I go jogging three times a week.

Question: What are they talking about?

B) Listen to the following dialogues and choose the best answer to each question. The dialogues will be read twice.

Dialogue One

W: Hello, Supertravel. How can I help you?

M: I'd like some information about flights to Italy.

W: Where do you want to go?

M: Rome. I want to leave on Tuesday the 6th of May and come back on Saturday the 10th.

W: It'll be much cheaper if you stay the Saturday night and come back on Sunday the 11th.
M: OK then, I'll go from the 6th to the 11th. I'd like to fly early in the morning if possible.
W: There's a flight leaving London at 8.30 on the 6th, getting to Rome at 12.00, and then for the return flight, there's one leaving at 9.00 getting to London at 12.30. Is that OK?
M: Yes, that's fine. Did you say I'll get to Rome at 12.30 on the 6th of May?
W: No, at 12.00. You leave at 8.30.
M: And the flight back gets in at 12.30 on the 11th?
W: That's right.
M: How much does it cost?
W: £195.
M: OK, that's fine. I'd like to book a return ticket for those flights.
W: Can I have your name please?
M: Yes, Robert Brown.
W: And your credit card details.
M: Yes, it's a Visa card...

Dialogue Two

M: So, how long have you been living here?
W: About six months now.
M: Why did you choose Beirut?
W: Because, Mike - my husband - and I have always loved Arab culture and the language. Mike's an English teacher and he got a job here in a language school.
M: Why did you want to take a year off?
W: Basically I wanted a break from teaching. I love teaching children but I needed a change. Also I've been drawing and painting since I was little but I've never really had the chance to study drawing. So this seemed like the perfect opportunity to have a change and learn to draw properly.
M: What have you been doing here since you arrived?
W: Well, I found a fantastic art teacher, called Omayma, and I've been having classes with her since October. She's great and she speaks English, which is lucky, because I don't know much Arabic yet. But I'm learning the language as quickly as I can.
M: Is Arabic a difficult language to learn?
W: Incredibly difficult! Especially the pronunciation. You have to learn to make a lot of new sounds.

Part III. Passages

Passage A

Listen to the following material and choose the best answer to each question. The material will be read twice.

Here is the 6 o'clock news.

Police arrested a 27-year-old man in Hamilton this morning in connection with the National Bank robbery last Friday. The man was stopped by police after a car salesman advised them that a man with a large quantity of cash was trying to buy a car. The National Bank was robbed last Friday when an armed man entered and threatened bank staff. He made off with about ten thousand dollars in cash.

Scientists in Adelaide last week tested a new electric car that they say can reach speeds of up to 100 kilometres an hour. The car is driven by two rechargeable batteries that last for about 500 kilometres. Scientists at the State Automotive Research Institute in Adelaide believe that this is the most economical electric car so far invented.

Bad weather closed the Desert Road for five hours yesterday. Many motorists were trapped in their cars in freezing conditions. Heavy snow continues to fall, and the Highways Department advises motorists to use chains if travelling on the Desert Road.

That brings us to the weather forecast, for tonight and tomorrow. A belt of bad weather...

Passage B

Listen to the following material and fill in the missing information in each numbered space with no more than three words. The material will be read twice.

Well, I'm going to give you some tips on how to keep healthy.

Tip number 1. Eat breakfast sitting down. Most people stay in bed until the last minute and then have a coffee and a piece of toast standing up. This is really bad for you, because it means that you start the day in a hurry. Your body and mind are already moving too fast. So do yourself a favour. Get up ten minutes earlier every day and have breakfast - nice and slowly.

Tip number 2. Forget the gym, and do yoga instead. Many people go to the gym after work to do exercise because they think that this relaxes them, but it doesn't, believe me. I really think that a gym is a very stressful place. Forget the gym and try doing yoga. Yoga will not only help you to get fit, but it will also slow your body down and help you to think more clearly.

And finally, tip number 3. Have a bath, not a shower. Having a shower is very quick and convenient but it is another part of our fast-living culture. When you come home from work, instead of having a shower, have a bath and spend half an hour there. A bath is one of the most relaxing things you can do and it will really help to slow you down at the end of a hard day.
